

Affordable Coverage

We believe the best health care in the world is worthless if Americans cannot afford it. We will drive down costs by giving Americans control over their own health care choices, making sure patients have the information they need to make good decisions, guaranteeing vigorous competition that benefits patients, and holding the entire health care system accountable to patients' needs.
